TARIFF RATES HIGHEST IN 50 YEARS

Democratic Members of Committee Vigorously Attacks Bill

SEES NEW BURDEN

G. O. P. Caucus Reaches Tentative Agreement on House Procedure—To Ask United Stand

Washington, June 30.—Sharply conflicting views as to the tax burden to be imposed on the American people by the Administration's Tariff bill were expressed today by Republican and Democratic leaders of the House.

Counting the free list, the average duty rate was estimated by Chairman Fordney, of the Ways and Means Committee, at between 18 and 20 per cent, compared with the 18.55 per cent Payne-Aldrich average and the 6 per cent under the present Underwood measure. Mr. Fordney insisted, however, that the average, after an accurate estimate, would range lower than Payne-Aldrich schedules.

Sees Cost of $2,000,000,000.

Taking issue with the chairman, Representative Garner, Texas, ranking Democrat on the committee, declared the rates, considering the American valuation provisions, were higher than those in any tariff bill passed by Congress since the Civil War. Quoting statements of Republicans that the bill, if passed as written, would bring in about $700,000,000 annually, Mr. Garner charged this meant an additional cost of at least $2,000,000,000 and "that the larger portion of this burden would fall upon the actual necessities of life."

He declared that during the life of the measure every man, woman and child in the United States "will be compelled to contribute $20 each per annum to the beneficiaries."

Mr. Fordney had announced early in the day that he would issue a statement showing in detail some of the essential provisions of the bill, and clearng up many points of differences, but a rush of work, he later said, made it impossible.

Bewildered by Length.

The upshot of all tariff talk verified predictions made before the bill was introduced Wednesday that the question whether the new rates, taken as a whole were higher or lower than the Payne-Aldrich duties would be the subject of unending and everlasting controversy and discussion.

In the absence of the expected statement from Chairman Fordney, members generally found the 346-page bill almost bewildering. There was resentment against some of the schedules by Republicans, but broadly speaking members stood on the bill according to party affiliations. There was a howl from some Democrats over the free list which, they insisted, had been too sharply reduced.

It seemed to be agreed that the American valuation section would affect between 50 and 60 per cent of all imports, which have no standard value. In fixing the duty upon a chair, for example, the committee wrote into the bill a provision that it should be assessed upon the value in the American market of a comparable and competitive article. In a word, a chair shipped here from Germany and costing $2 there would be assessed at the port of entry at $5, if the latter figure were judged to be the fair price in this country. Under existing law the duty is based upon the foreign value.

Because of this provision it was difficult for members generally to do their own figuring or to make accurate comparisons with Payne-Aldrich rates. Mr. Fordney in what he described as a rough estimate of average said he had taken into account the valuation section.

To Ask United Stand.

No definite agreement was reached by the caucus tonight on the procedure to be followed in the House. A tacit understanding, however, was reached that many of the contested rates should be placed before the House for straight amendment, separate consideration and vote.

The contested subjects include oil, lumber and hides, now on the free list, and the provision respecting control of dye importations. On all rates not to be put to a straight amendment vote the Republicans, it was said, would be asked to stand solidly behind the committee action.

The tentative plan, although lacking formal approval, provides for about 10 days of general debate, after which a special rule will be sought to prevent amendment except through the committee or to the contested list.

Several more conferences will probably be held on the bill. The next one is scheduled for Wednesday night.

LOSER OF TOMORROW'S BATTLE SURE OF JOB

Chicago, July 1.—Whether Jack Dempsey or Georges Carpentier wins the international fisticuffs at Jersey City Saturday, the defeated battler will not have ot arde ETAOINi ne will not have to read the want ads in quest of a job.

Edward Morris, himself a sportsman and a follower of the manly art, sent each of the principals a telegram today.

To Jack in the event of losing the championship belt, he offered a position in the Morris Company intelligence department.

To "Carp," in case he is not returned victor a job as Paris representative of the packing firm is tendered.

Withdraws From Race

George S. French Drops Fight for Office of Tax Collector— P. F. Gorman to be Nominee

George S. French who some time ago announced his candidacy for the office of collector of taxes of the city subject to the democratic primary which will be held August 2, today withdrew from the contest. Mr. French this morning foumally announced his withdrawal. This leaves only one candidate in the field for the office, P. F. Gorman, the incumbent, who will be the party nominee.

Mr. French several weeks ago announced his candidacy for the office and has had a large number of warm supporters for the office. However, several days ago he decided to abandon the idea of entering the race as stated above withdraw from the contest.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Charlottesville, Va.—Miss Adelaide Douglas Simpson, of New York, a graduate of Bryn Mawr and Columbia, has been elected dean of women of the University of Virginia. Miss Simpson will assume her duties with the opening of the university in September. The creation of the office of dean of women at the University of Virginia comes after a year of coeducation in the professional and graduate schools. Nineteen women registered during the last session and degrees were awarded three of them in June, the first to be awarded to women in the hundred years of the institution's history.

Harrisburg, Va.—The safety deposit vault of the Bank of Grottoes, located at Grottoes, twelve miles southeast of here, was blown open at an early hour yesterday morning and fifty-five deposit boxes removed, forty being taken away entirely and fifteen left at a point about fifty yards from the bank. One box, said to have contained $7,000 in Liberty bonds, was rifled, while another, containing $22,000 in Liberty bonds and other securities, was tampered with but left unopened. Five hundred dollars worth of postage stamps, deposited by the Grottoes postmaster, was taken. The main vault of the bank, having a time lock and containing the bank' funds, was not molested. The total amount of loot is unknown.

Richmond—The mid-year report of James H. Hayes, Jr., chief clerk in the office of the secretary of the commonwealth, as to the registration of automobile licenses for the first half of 1921 shows as follows: Motor vehicles registered in State during 1921, 125,000; re-registrations or transfers, 5,000; passenger cars, 110,000; trucks, 14,600; trailers, 100; motorcycles, 1,800; chauffeurs and operators, 4,500; total fees collected, $1,800,000.

RAIL MEN READY TO ACCEPT CUT

Chicago, July 1.—First indication that the "big four" brotherhoods would accept the railway wage cuts, thus averting a nation-wide strike on rail lines, was given here today by H. M. Daugherty, vice grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. He indicated the brotherhoods might "informally" accept the wage reductions.

Daugherty declared, however, that if the "get-together" session of leaders of the sixteen "big" rail unions here today voted against acceptance, the reductions would be put up to a "referendum" in the "big four" brotherhoods. The "referendum" in effect would be a strike vote.

As a majority of the 1,500,000 railway workers throughout the country reported for work today at reduced wages, their representatives, 1,000 strong, were assembled here for conferences regarding the 12 per cent wage slash. They are relied upon to keep transportation wheels turning.

The union leaders of the sixteen organizations dominating the railroad labor world, gathered here, are about as talkative as clams. In no quarter is loud talk heard of "strike." The general verdict of the delegates appears to be:

"It's up to the men."

Railway officials do not appear to be worried by prospects of a strike. They pointed out today that the union leaders are cognizant of the industrial depression throughout the country and that they would hesitate long before recommending any action that would swell the ranks of the jobless.

REPUBLICANS TO PUT UP TICKET

Will Place Contestants in Field For City Offices

TO NOMINATE JULY 21

City Convention Last Night Nominated F. Clinton Knight For Legislature—Delegates Selected

The republicans of this city expect to put a full ticket in the field for city offices according to an announcement made last night at a meeting of the city republican committee held in the auditorium of the chamber of commerce presided over by John U. Schwarzmann, city chairman. The republicans will hold a mass meeting in the rooms of the chamber of commerce the night of July 21 for the purpose of nominating candidates for city offices it was stated.

The convention nominated F. Clinton Knight candidate for the state legislature. The nomination was made by D. J. Wolfford. He will oppose the democratic nominee who will be chosen in the primary August 2. All of the republicans will enter the election next November. It was stated by Mr. Knight that hereafter the republicans expect to have a ticket in the field in every election.

The convention elected delegates to the state convention which will be held in Norfolk, July 14. They are as follows: Mrs. Charles A. Strauss, Mrs. Albert Lucas, Mrs. George Kimball and Louis Hardin and Messrs. Thomas Bayne, Frank P. Wolfford, Charles S. Stofer, Charles A. Strauss, O. P. Angelo, Charles Downey, William Chauncey, Charles A. Dean, W. S. Risdon, William A. Jolly, Louis Hardin, Ferdinand Devaughan, James Callan, D. J. Wolfford, J. A. Eggborn, F. Clinton Knight, D. E. Robey. Alexandria is entitled to nine delegates and the number who will attend will have the full strength of the votes. It was decided not elect any alternates.

Mrs. Charles A. Strauss addressed the convention. She told of the work being done by the League of Women Voters and said the women feel that they have come to make politics a little better. The principal matters discussed by the league she declared included schools, good roads and health. In accepting the nomination for the House of Delegates Mr. Knight thanked the convention and declared it was a great time for the republicans to start something and he added that he expected to be elected.

Chairman Schwarzmann declared the state convention would nominate candidates for all state offices and said the republicans would be proud of whoever is nominated.

He urged all to use their influence to get those who vote the republican ticket to keep out of the democratic primary which will be held August 2. Mrs. Charles A. Strauss was appointed to organize the republican women of the city.

The meeting was attended by about twenty-five persons.

Deaths And Funerals

The funeral of Abram H. Smyth, who died Wednesday night, will take place at 10.30 o'clock tomorrow morning from his late residence in the Rosemont apartment 414 Duke street. Services will be conducted by Rev. Percy Foster Hall, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church and burial will be in Union cemetery.

Funeral services for Mrs. Carrie Shariff, who died Wednesday, took place this afternoon from her late residence 1408 Prince street. Services were conducted by Rev. Robert Browne, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church. Burial was in Bethel cemetery.

The body of Frederick C. Rinker, who died Tuesday, was shipped today to Front Royal, Va., for burial. Funeral services were held last night at the residence of Donald A. Campbell, 1621 King street and conducted by Rev. O. P. Lloyd, pastor of the Second Baptist Church.

SHIP BOARD WILL SELL FLEET OF WOODEN SHIPS.

Washington, June 30.—The new Shipping Board has decided to finally dispose of the Government fleet of 287 wooden ships, it was stated today at the office of Chairman Lasker. Bids on the vessels, most of which are tied up in the James river, near Newport News, Va., will be invited and opened July 30.

Several unsuccessful efforts were made by the old board to sell the wooden craft. Members of the present board believe, however, that the ships can be used by some foreign nations in their coastwise trade. At any rate, the board is expected to dispose of them one way or another, as it is held that they cannot be fitted into the homeogeneous plan of the American merchant marine and the cost of maintaining them in idleness is heavy.

MRS. OELRICHS TO SELL CIGARETTES FOR WOMEN

Newport, R. I., July 1.—Mrs. Charles Deloosey Oelrichs has forsaken society for business. Next week she wil lopen a store at 156 Bellevue avenut, where she will sell perfumes and deal in cigarettes of the popular brand for women.

Mrs. Oelrichs would not discuss her recent divorce this evening. She said al lhad been stated and nothing more would be of interest. Her shop on the avenue is bound to be the most popular place in Newport as Mrs. Oelrichs has many friends in the villa colony.

MERE MAN DEFEATS WOMEN IN BREAD TEST.

Chicago, June 30.—Charles F. Champlin, just an average man making no pretensions to superiority, went into a bread-making contest with 45 women at the Evaston "county fair" and won first prize, a work apron with blue ribbon drawn work embroidery.

Officials of the fair made the announcement today. The contest was held last week and the 46 loaves of bread were tested by well-known dietitians and experts, who agreed Champlin had turned over the best loaf.

"My mother taught me to bake," said Champlin. "I grew up on a little Illinois farm ard I learned to do lots of things. I am willing to teach any man how to bake bread like mine, but I warn him not to do it too often or he will spoil his wife."

DANVILLE BOOTLEGGERS CHALLENGE POLICE TO BASEBALL GAME.

Danville, Va., June 30.—The Danville Police Department has made a dignified yet emphatic reply to the challenge issued by the bootleggers who yesterday sent a formal request for a baseball game by L. E. De Marcus. At first the challenge was regarded as a joke, but it later developed that the bootleggers had sent the request for the game in all seriousness, claiming that they would draw their team material from the list of 208 convicted bootleggers.

THIS SCIENTIST GROWS REAL PATRIOTIC CORN

Chicago, July 1.—After three years of experiment, Prof William L. Woodburn, of Northwestern University, has produced a near of corn containing red white and blue kernels, he announced yesterday. Prof. Woodburn asserted he soon would be able to perfect his corn so that the rows of kernels would show solid bars of red, white and blue.

The colored corn was produced by crossing red and white ears to make blue ears, according to Prof. Woodburn, and then grafting the three varieties.

DAUGHTER SEEKS SEAT OF CONGRESSMAN MASON

Chicago, July 1.—Mrs. Winifred Mason Huck, youngest daughter of the late Congressman William E. Mason, yesterday announced her candidacy to succeed her father, who was Congressman-at-large from Illinois. Mrs. Huck is the mother of four children.

She has conferred with Gov. Len Small regarding the possibility of her appointment to fill the unexpired term of her father. If a special election is necessary, she will b ea candidate she said.

Ready For Big Fight

Odds Drop 2 to 1 On Eve of Big Battle.

New York, July 2.—When Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier crawl through the ropes to face each other tomorrow afternoon in Jersey City in "the battle of the century," the biggest and most cosmopolitan crowd that ever witnessed a fistic struggle will be present.

The gigantic amphitheater which Tex Rickard has erected is declared to have a seating capacity of 91,613. It was fairly certain today that this vast arena will be filled to overflowing.

From far away Japan, Australia, France, England, Spain, South America, and from every State in the Union fight fans have made their way here to witness this struggle between the champion of Europe and the conqueror of Jess Willard.

Every train that arrived in New York today brought scores more who want to be present in Boyle's thirty acres tomorrow. Many of them have their tickets. Many more have not, but hope to get the coveted pasteboards when the cheaper seats are placed on sale early tomorrow.

Evry hotel within a radius of fifty miles of Greater New York reports all rooms engaged for tonight. Judging from the steady stream of arrivals today, there will be a great many who will have difficulty in finding places to sleep.

The principles in tomorrow's struggle were in seclusion today. The champion was preparing to make his get-away from Atlantic City. He will do only the lightest kind of work today, simply to loosen up his muscles. He plans to spend tonight at the home of a friend in Jersey City. He received no visitors, even newspapermen being barred. He will do light setting-up exercises tomorrow morning and then probably take a nap while waiting for the hour to go to the arena.

Betting continued light. The odds range from 2 to 1 to 3 to 1. One Wall Street house announced that it had $1,000 to bet against $8,000 that Dempsey will win by a knockout in the first pound; $1,000 against $4,000 that he will win by a knockout in the second round; $1,000 against $3,000 that he will win in the third by a knockout; $1.000 against $2,000 that he will win in the fourth by a knockout, and $5,000 even that Dempsey wins in the fifth by a knockout.

Several houses reported having Carpentier money, odds of 1 to 3 being demanded. It was said that Dempsey backers were holding out for 2 to 1.

Road's Petition Heard

Virginia Commission Considers W. and Va. Increase in Fares.

Richmond, Va., July 1.—The Virginia state corporation commission is today hearing argument on the petition of the Washington-Virginia Railway Company for an increase in the rates within the State. The company seeks to have the rates in Virginia fixed on the three-cent-a-mile rate now in effect in interstate business.

The Interstate Commerce Commission on June 10 issued an order authorizing the road to increase its flat fare rate on interstate business to 3 cents a mile, from 2.5 cents. The road now seeks to have the fares within the State raised to the same level.

FLYERS' BODIES FOUND

Hampton, Va., July 1.—The body of Capt. Howard Douglas, who lost his life last week when an airplane he was piloting collided with a machine driven by Lieut. M. J. Plumb, yesterafternoon wa staken out of Chesapeake bay a short distance from where the accident occurred. The body of Lieut. Plumb was recovered the following day.

Capt. Douglas' body will be shipped tomorrow to Washington and later will be sent to his former home in California.

GERMANS LIKE D. J. HILL

The Zeitung Am Mittag says Dr. Hill's appointment as ambassador to Germany "would prove of inestimable value to the interests of both countries, in view of the former ambassador's familiarity with German thought, language and science."

TAFT CONFIRMED AS CHIEF JUSTICE

Senate Acts Promptly But Four Members Vote Against Ex-President

TWO HIGHEST OFFICES

Borah and Johnson Lead Opposition —Harding Pays Tribute—Supreme Court To Meet in October

Washington, June 30.—President Harding announced this afternoon the appointment of former President William Howard Taft to be Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, to succeed the late Chief Justice Edward D. White.

Confirmed by Senate.

Within two hours after receiving the nomination the Senate had ordered Mr. Taft's confirmation by a vote of 70 to 4. Senators Borah, Johnson, of California, La Follette Republicans, and Watson, of Georgia, Democrat, opposed favorable action.

Borah and Johnson led the fight on the floor in opposition to Mr. Taft, while he was defended by about a dozen Senators, including Knox, of Pennsylvania; Kellogg, of Minnesota, and Willis, of Ohio, Republicans, and Underwood, of Alabama, minority leader; Smith, of South Carolina; Overman, of North Carolina, and Broussard, of Louisiana, Democrats.

Senators Borah and Johnson were understood to have centered their fight on Mr. Taft's legal training, experience and qualifications. Accordingto reports filtering out from the Senate chamber, Senator Johnson was said to have declared that Mr. Taft's appointment was "purely political." A similar charge, it was reported, was made by Senator Borah. It had been the purpose of Senate leaders to consider this nomination in open executive session, but when opposition was discovered the plan was changed and the doors closed.

Two Highest Offices.

The appointment of Mr. Taft as Chief Justice is unique in the history of the country in that for the first time the same person has been called to fill the two most important and illustrous offices in the United States, that of President and presiding officer of the nation's highest tribunal.

Judge Taft's appointment does not come as a surprise. At the time of Chief Justice White's death it was taken for granted on every hand that the former President would be called once more into the service of the Government. Other names were suggested, of course, including Secretary of State Hughes, Associate Justices Van Deventer, Day and Pitney and former Senator Sutherland. But in all unofficial discussions the qualifications of Mr. Taft stood out and his appointment seemed a forgone conclusion.

Mr. Taft's appointment to the Chief Justiceship was dictated not wholly by reason of his recognized ability as a jurist, it was explained by the President this afternoon, but because of his wide and intimate knowledge of the administrative phases of the Government as well.

This practical knowledge, coupled with the fine judgment of the former President, it was added, will be of inestimable value to the Department of Justice and to the Judiciary Committees of the House and Senate in the court reorganization which it is realized must be undertaken at once.

Harding Pays Tribute.

Commenting directly upon the availability of Mr. Taft and his fitness for high judicial honors, the President stated that the former President is an outstanding figure in American life; that long before he was elected President he had proved himself an able judge and that since he retired from the bench he has been one of the foremost administrators of the nation.

The appointment was almost universally approved in Washington and the feeling here is that the country at large will applaud President Harding for his choice.

So far as the appointee is concerned, it is well known to all his closer friends that since early manhood he has entertained the ambition to be Chief Justice of the United States. It is said by many of these Sheppard Maternity Bill.

The Sheppard - Towner Bill, providing for instruction in the hygiene of maternity and infancy, is, in our opinion, one of the important measures now pending in the U. S. Senate. There is an appalling waste of the lives of mothers and infants in this country each year. In fact, it is stated that the mortality in these cases annually exceeds the total loss of life in our armies during the World War.

The various women's organizations all over the United States are unanimously urging its passage. It is the one thing, perhaps, that appeals to womanhood more strongly than could any other existing piece of legislation. It is the one thing too, that the wisest man knows less about than the humblest woman.

"This measure stands first in the executive program of the enfranchised women of America," — says Senator Sheppard. "It promotes one of the noblest and purest aims—the conservation of human life at the source. The first obligation of society is to the unborn child. The fundamental right of every human being is to a normal birth. Without it the equal chance which forms the basis of Democracy is lost."

Wise words, Senator Sheppard! If you shall succeed in writing your measure into the statutes of this country, what countless millions, yet unborn, shall rise to call you blessed! It were a prouder achievement to have originated and carried through this legislation than to have made a new tariff, or even to have devised, for the first time, a just and equitable tax measure.

That the bill will pass sometime, somehow, there can no doubt. The men of this country owe it to the sainted memories of their mothers to insist on the passage of a bill that shall be an untold boon and benison to all the mothers of the future in this great land.

The bill provides that each state accepting the act is to receive $10,000 annually from the Federal Government, unconditioned on any appropriation from its own treasury. In addition each state is to receive the proportion of one million dollars that its population bears to the total population of the United States. It is proposed that the act be administered by state agencies, under the supervision of the Children's Bureau of the Department of Labor. Furthermore it is not obligatory on any one to accept the instruction it provides.

The opponents of the bill are condemning themselves out of their own mouths. Their names will be written large on the women's calendars, now, and for all the years to come.

Senator Reed, of Missouri, whose voice has more than once has betrayed him under his senatorial toga—objects, between a whine and a whimper, that "it is interfering in family matters."—He might as well attack our public school system on the same ground. The sole purpose of the bill is to inculcate education in matters that are fully as important as any of the three R's, or of the humanities.

We hope that the august Senate will give heed to the voice of the people in full time to carry out their wishes at this session.

COMMITS BIGAMY TO OFFSET DESPONDENCY AND IDLENESS.

Springfield, Mass., June 30.—Despondency and lack of work were given by Walter R. Thomas in the local police court today as the reasons for marrying while he already had a wife.

Thomas, who is 40 years old, was sentenced to two years in the House of Correction by Judge Heady, after pleading guilty to bigamy.

It was brought out during the trial that Thomas contributed only $2 to his first wife's support in four years and that a honeymoon with his second wife was enjoyed in an automobile owned by Mrs. Thomas No. 1.

On June 30, 1917, he married Mildred A. White, 29 years old, of this city, and on April 29, 1921, he took to wife Lulu Maria Prentice, 25 years old, of West Springfield.

Arrested last week for deserting his first wife, the existence of the second was discovered.

Today and Saturday

To Coal Consumers:--

It is not possible to mine, transport and deliver enough coal during the few Fall and Winter months to supply the demand of that period, so it is always necessary for the trade to take in a reasonable amount of coal during the Spring and Summer months in order to avoid a shortage and high prices.

There is being so small a tonnage stored this Summer that it now looks very much as though there might be a pronounced shortage and higher prices when the weather begins to get cold.

As we see very little likelihood of any decrease in the price of high grade domestic coal between this time and cold weather, we are taking this method of urging our customers to take in a reasonable amount of fuel now.

HAPPIEST WOMAN IN W., VA.

"Nothing is Left of My Troubles But the Memory of Them," Says Huntington Woman.

"I just know I'm the happiest woman in West Virginia since Tanlac restored by health," said Mrs. A. W. Clark, of 2523 Eighth street, Huntington, W. Va.

"For five years I was a great sufferer from stomach trouble. My appetite was very poor, and I was troubled with indigestion so bad I actually dreaded to eat. After meals I suffered so from sour stomach, nausea, heartburn, cramping spells, palpitations and shortness of breath that I was often miserable for hours.

"Headaches and backaches almost drove me to distraction. I was so nervous the least little thing would upset me and I couldn't sleep good at night. I suffered a great deal from constipation, and had a dull, draggy feeling all the time, with no energy and no interest in anything.

"But Tanlac helped me just like it had been made especially for me, and I'm certainly making up for lost time in eating now. Everything agrees with me perfectly, nothing is left of my troubles but the memory of them and I feel like a brand-new person. I have got my husband to taking Tanlac, for he was not feeling well, and it is already helping him wonderfully."

DEAN OF WOMEN NAMED FOR UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.

Charlottesville, Va., June 30—Miss Adelaide Douglas Simpson, of New ork, a graduate of Bryn Mawr and Columbia, and former Dean of Women at Hillsdale College, Michigan, has been elected Dean of Women of the University of Virginia. The confirmation of her election by the Board of Visitors at its recent meeting was made known today. Miss Simpson will assume her new duties with the opening of the University in September.

Miss Simpson is a native of Louisville, Ky., and received her early schooling in Philadelphia and New York. She holds a bachelor of arts degree from Bryn Mawr, 1913, and a master's degree from Columbia, 1917. She was assistant to the Registrar at Columbia University during 1914-16 and was Dean of Women and professor of Latin at Hillsdale College, Michigan, 1917-19. She held the Ordaler Fellowship in Classical Philology at Columbia University, 1919-20-21.

The creation of the office of Dean of Women at the University of Virginia comes after a year of co-education in the professional and graduate schools. Nineteen women registered during the past session and degrees were awarded three of them in June, the first to be awarded to women in the hundred years of the institution's history.

INGROW TOE NAIL TURNS OUT ITSELF

A noted authority says that a few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over night.

"Outgro" is a harmless, antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing three trims.

SPORTS

The Speedway A. C., the pride of Southwest Washington, strengthened by several members of the Navy Yard Southerlands, which played the Dreadnaughts a 6 to 2 game here recently, will be the latter's opponents Saturday, 4 o'clock, at Baggett's Field. The Naval Hospital nine cancelled yesterday, being compelled to leave Washington on a trip over the Fourth, and playing the game at the above hour was not suitable to their management, and the hour of 2:30 that they desired to start the game, being unsatisfactory to the Dreadnaught management. Saturday's games are drawing well now that the half holidays are here, and a strong schedule is being arranged for that day by Manager Allen. Coaches Hayden and Brenner will select a team from the following named men: Alexander, Ludlow, Stevens, Williams, Devers, McMahon, Giles, Long, Strunkle, Merchant and Distell, the latter a newcomer from New York State, now employed in Alexandria.

Sunday, at 3 o'clock, on Baggett's Field, the strongest service club in this section of the country, the crack Quantico Marines, will be the Dreadnaughts' opposition, and with only a 6 to 3 defeat by the fast Rex A. C., the visitors record stands A-No. 1. Alexander or Frye will work this game for the D's.

Clarendon, the Dreadnaughts' rivals for Northern Virginia honors, will play here Independence Day, at 3 o'clock. The Rex is the only club that has defeated this aggregation this season, and "Tim" Jordan will bring down his strongest line-up in endeavoring to wipe out last year's double defeat ath the hands of the big D's. This game is the first of a three-game series between these two strong Virginia clubs, the second game to be played at Clarendon on July 31, and the third, if necessary, at American League Park, at a date to be agreed upon by the managers of the two teams.

The Clarendon club will be under new management, Bill Malone, their bulky leader, having resigned, Ralph Ball will be in charge of the club on Monday's game. It is understood that either Lefty Hersperger, the Leesburg crack southpaw, or Sedgwick, the ex-pro, will occupy the mound for the Arlington clubmen.

The Alexandria Torpedo Station baseball team defeated the Bolling Field Aviators of Bolling Field, Anacostia, D. C., Saturday afternoon by the score of 7 to 4. The battery for the A. T. S was Jorgensen and Tulloch. This has been the first game that "Jorgie" has pitched since last July when he pitched against the Camp Humphreys' Camp Team (soldiers). The Bolling Field is leading the Potomac League in Washington and is classed as one of the best teams in Washington. Up to the time of the game that the Torpedo team played them last Saturday, they had only lost one game out of the league and that was to the big D's of this city, but since last Saturday when they defeated them they have lost another one, making the third one they have lost this season out of the league.

The Torpedo Station team at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon will line up against the Hartford Athletic Club on the North Alfred street grounds, and Tuesday, July 5, will at 5:15 o'clock, play the Camp Humphrey's team on Baggett's field at the head of King street. Frank Fegan will umpire this game.

Montreal, June 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Maise, of New York, wanted to dress for dinner soon after the liner City of London left port yesterday, but they found their baggage was missing. So the skipper sent the following radio to his agents here: "First-class passenger appeared in the dining room minus collar. Man and wife have lost all their luggage. Please arrange."

ORDER OF IRON CROSS

The King of Prussia has issued from Breslau, under date of March 17, 1813, an order for instituting a distinction of merit, to be called the ORDER OF THE IRON CROSS, as significatory of the constancy which has been displayed in the great contest for liberty and independence.

Richmond, June 29, 1813.

We have the satisfaction to learn that none of our brave officers who commanded at Hampton are killed; but we have to lament that major Gawin L. Corbin received two severe wounds, one in the left arm and one in the leg and is now at Yorktown, and great hopes entertained of his life.

Arrived in this village yesterday morning, Colonel Samuel Kemper, Commander of the American Volunteers in the service of the Mexican Republic. According to him a handful of men, five hundred miles in the interior of such a country as Mexico, have been able to make a stand for six months, and have finally triumphed.

Pottsville, Pa., June 29.—A forest fire, reported to be the largest so far this year, is sweeping northward between Lofty and Girary Manor, in this county.

Men have been sent from Shenandoah and mine employes are being held in readiness if further help is needed. Fire has already burned one thousand acres and is spreading rapidly.

Two other fires, one north of St. Clair and another east of Tamaqua, are being fought by one thousand men. George H. Wirt, chief State warden, is en route to take charge of the work.

The bronze copy of Houdon's statue of George Washington presented by Virginia to Great Britain, was unveiled Wednesday in Trafalgar Square, London. Miss Judith Brewer, daughter of the speaker of the Virginia Legislature, pulled the strings which released the veil.

POPULATION OF FRANCE 2,000,000 LESS THAN IN 1911.

Paris, June 30.—France has lost 2,000,000 inhabitants since 1911, it is revealed by the census. The population now is 36,084,206, against 38,468,818 in 1911.

The former figures, however, do not include troops and marines on foreign service on the date of the census, March 6.

SPINSTER PARTED FROM HER 57 CATS AND DOGS.

Hackensack, N. J., June 30.—Fifty-seven new arrivals, cats and dogs from the home of Miss Estelle Lawton in Bergenfield, were announced at the Hackensack Pound today.

The animals comprised the menagerie maintained in luxurious idleness by Miss Lawton, who has been placed under observation as to her sanity. Constant additions to the animal colony aroused suspicions as to the woman's mental balance, resulting in today's raid.

SAYS NO RAID MADE.

The Editor, Alexandria Gazette, Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sir:

I have read in the issue of the Gazette of June 29, an account of a "raid" made by the Police Department on the freight station of the Richmond, Fredericksburg & Potomac RR., and the "capture" of a supply of beer; this account is somewhat misleading and I would like to acquaint you with the facts of the case.

The shipment was received by us from Philadelphia, billed as four barrels of empty bottles and because of one of the barrels being loose and the contents exposed to view, it was discovered that instead of the bottles being empty, they contained some sort of liquid, and for this reason the shipment was held up by us in our warehouse, and the circumstances duly reported to the authorities. The Police Department presented a search warrant, and after having the contents of several of the bottles analyzed, they announced that the analysis showed that the liquid was beer, containing an unlawful amount of alcohol, and the shipment was thereupon turned over to the Police Department. There was no "raid" upon our station, and no necessity for one.

I shall appreciate your printing this correct explanation of the matter.

Yours very truly,
H. E. GENTRY,
Agent, R. F. & P. RR. Co

NOTICE.
This is to notify my many friends that I have this day withdrawn my candidacy for the office of city tax collector in the Democratic primary to be held August 2. I take this method of thanking my many friend for their warm and generous support friends that if he had been given the choice of taking that office or of becoming President he unhesitatingly would have found more pride and satisfaction in ascending the highest bench.
GEORGE S. FRENCH

At the time he was Secretary of War he might have been appointed an associate justice of the Supreme Court if he had insisted upon it. But he was dissuaded from taking that position by members of his family and by President Roosevelt, all of whom looked upon him as the heir-apparent to the Roosevelt Presidential mantle, a mantle that in time fell upon his shoulders.

The Supreme Court is now in annual recess. That tribunal will not formally reconvene until October and from a purely court standpoint it may be unnecessary for Mr. Taft to be inducted into office at once. Even the clerk of the court very recently died and no successor has been named. The associate justices have refused to make any appointment until a new Chief Justice should be named. Meanwhile the deputy clerk is acting under the bond of the late clerk, and there is some pressure for action of one or the other of the two matters.

CALOMEL DYING FAST IN SOUTH

"Dodson's Liver Tone" is Taking the Place of Dangerous Sickening Drug

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's Dodson's guarantee! Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate so let them eat anything after wards.

PLANS FOR STATE SHORT COURSE.

The May issue of the Agricultural Club Letter announced the State Club Short Course at V. P. I. for the week of July 25th to 30th. We hope that, since that announcement, club members all over the State have taken President Longworth's suggestion that "Old V. P. I. be filled up with club members for the State Short Course." We want to tell you in this letter more about the great plans that are being made for you.

There will be four courses offered and you can select the one in which you are most interested.

The Farm Mechanics Course.

Every club boy in Virginia will be delighted with the opportunity this course will afford to spend a week in learning about improved farm machinery. It's the chance of a life time for you boys. Read Mr. Seitz' article telling you about it.

Poultry Course.

This course will give every Poultry Club member in the State a splendid opportunity to learn many things that will be valuable to them in their poultry work. The entire week will be devoted to breeds, judging poultry, diseases and parasites, how to feed baby chicks and paultry flocks, how to cull poultry, how to build poultry houses and light durable shipping coops.

The Mockingbird is trim in appearance; its well-poised head of plain grey color fits gracefully into a back of the same color, its breast being white; it has a long tail and wings of blackish gray, which are tipped with white.

Investigation of the feeding habits of the bird indicate that most of its food consists of seeds and fruit. The bird's appetite for fruit and berries in some communities becomes so troublesome that occasionally some fruit growers complain of their depredations, while others plant more fruit in order to provide enough both for man and bird. The latter is the humane and economic method, and should be followed by all orchardists.

The Mockingbird is a non-game bird and is protected by law. The bird belongs to the Arder Passeres, Suborder Oscines, and Family Mimidae. Its scientific name is Minus polyglottos. Its breeding range comprises the whole of the United States, north of Maryland, southern Iowa and central California.

The value of game in Pennsylvania is estimated at $66,000,000 and the licensed hunters and farmers allowed to hunt on their own lands represent some 600,000 stockholders, according to a statement issued by the game commissioin of that State. It is stated that the kill of game last year amounted to 10,000,000 pounds of meat, worth at least forty cents a pound. The number of hunters has increased 65 per cent in Pennsylvania in five years and in the opinion of the game authorities necessitates the fixing of one month, November, being favored, for small game, including woodcock and rabbits. The commission is strongly urging the one-month game bill, which would allow deer hunting in December, and has also appeared in behalf of the bill to require two prongs on all bucks before they can become legal game, pointing out that some camps have their own rules along the same line and that unless bucks are allowed to mature the breed will be affected in a few years.

FOREST CONSERVATION.

Virginia's forest resource is represented by 14,000,000 acres of forest or brush land, from which are being cut 3,500,000,000 feet of lumber, cordwood and other products annually. It is conservatively estimated that less than one-third of this cut is being replaced each year by growth.

Forest fires on three days in April, 1920, caused damage of over $250,000, as estimated from reports received from twenty-four counties, 63 per cent of which damage is to be charged to carelessness in brush-burning.

Forest fires alone are responsible for a reduction roughly estimated at more than $10,000,000 each year, in the value of the annual forest crop.

Organization for forest fire protection under the forest law is made entirely optional with the 100 counties of the State.

WATER POLLUTION.

Dr. Victor E. Shelford, of the University of Illinois, has conducted a series of experiments to determine the effect upon fishes of various pollution. His researches indicate the following conclusions: (1) Pollution is likely to be most injuries during periods of low water or during winter when ice prevents aeration. (2) The most sensitive period of a fish's life is probably just after hatching. (3) The effect of poisons on the minute animals which form the food supply of fishes is as important as the effect upon the fishes themselves. (4) Many wastes, e.g., sawdust, sewage, etc., cover the river bottom and make conditions unfavorable for eggs. (5) Fish will turn back from acid effluents and from sulphuretted hydrogen, but they sometimes show a preference for water polluted by tanny wastes and, of course, succumb. (6) If, through extensive pollution, a river is depleted of its fish life, natural recovery will only be very slow even though the pollution be stopped. To restock with the fish only is not sufficient. The entire association of plants and animals must revive.

WILD BIRDS AND GAME FOWL ARE INCREASING.

Notable increases in migratory birds, through special protection afforded them under Federal laws, are reported by George A. Lawyer, Chief United States Game Warden of the Bureau of Biological Survey, United States Department of Agriculture, as a feature of his recent inspection of the various districts scattered throughout the country. Mr. Lawyer's trip took him practically around the borders and coasts of the entire country, giving him opportunity to observe the condition of the birds in all important wintering sections of the United States.

Wild ducks and geese were found in great abundance, showing the most notable increase of any of the migratory birds. Greater numbers of upland plover, sandhill cranes, and Wilson snipe or jacksnipe, were also especially noted. The welfare of the birds was found to be generally satisfactory and promising, although the draining of marsh lands in many places has driven them from some of their old feeding and breeding haunts.

Greater need is evidenced for the government purchase and maintenance of large tracts of marsh lands, where the birds would be secure from molestation. Such natural asylums, it is said, are becoming fewer and consequently are affording less protection each year, due chiefly to the large areas being reclaimed for commercial purposes. The birds are quick to discover when they are in places where they are safe from hunters.

SOUTHERN FORESTS.

The Federal Government maintains forest service for the purpose of conserving the nation's timber supply. About one-fifth of the forest land in the United States is publicly owned. It is estimated that the merchantable new timber remaining in the country approximately 2,215 billion board feet. Somewhat less than three-fourths of this tremendous resource is regarded as virgin stumpage; the remainder is largely second growth of relatively inferior quality. Over sixty per cent of our timber supply lies west of the great plains and half is to be found in the three Pacific Coast states. About one-fifth of the standing timber in the United States is hardwood and lies in the eastern states, there being no appreciable amount of hardwood species in the forests of the Rocky Mountains and of the Pacific Coast.

An estimate of our timber supply from the standpoint of acreage also envolves tremendous figures. The original forests of the United States have been estimated at 822 million acres. Today it is thought that only 463 million acres remain, and of this area only about 137 million acres are virgin forest. It is believed that only about one-sixth of the virgin forests remain.

The most alarming reduction has occurred in the pine forests of the South, which since the depletion of the northeastern forests have contributed the bulk of the building and structural timber. It is estimated that the southern pine forests have been reduced from an original stand of 650 billion board feet to 139 billion board feet and it is predicted by forestry authorities that in ten years more the production of southern pine will no longer exceed the domestic requirements.

HISTORICAL PAGEANT ON JULY FOURTH.

Williamsburg, Va., June 27.—Preparations for the historical pageant which is to be the most impressive and interesting feature of the Community Fourth of July Celegration in old Williamsburg have almost been completed. Rehearsals are held daily and a picturesque and appropriate background on the college of William and Mary campus is in the process of construction. Costumes and accessories rich in all the quaint loveliness of the Colonial period have been secured and a charming musical setting for the stirring scenes depicting the birth of American freedom has been arranged.

Out of the host of historic associations which cluster about Williamsburg, Patrick Henry's defiance of the Stamp Act in 1765, the spark which kindled the flaming fires of the American Revolution, has been selected as the story which the pageant will tell. The continuity is the work of E. G. Swem, the college librarian, and the original sources have been thoroughly studied in order that the historic authenticity of the dialog may be maintained throughout.

The pageant is in five scenes, the action begins with the first session of the House of Burgesses, October, 1764, and its most dramatic scene is the presentation of Patrick Henry's five resolutions, May 29, 1765. The concluding scene occurs in the Raleigh Tavern where a ball and reception tendered the delegates is in progress. A number of beautiful dances, a stately minuet, a lovely Morris Dance and a charming Bergomask promise to make this scene replete with lovliness.

The cast contains the names of many distinguished Virginians, and the performance will be noteworthy for skillful characterizations as well as its visual delights.

The pageant has attracted statewide interest, and scores of inquiries indicate the presence of a record breaking crowd in Williamsburg on the Fourth.

GIRLS! WHITEN SKIN WITH LEMON JUICE

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin.

Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.

KELVINATOR

REFRIGERATION WITHOUT ICE

Kelvinator is an electrically operated home refrigerating unit. It fits neatly into the ice compartment of any standard refrigerator doing away entirely with the use of ice as a cooling medium.

Kelvinator is the modern mechanical substitute for ice the ice you have for years used in your refrigerator. Ordinarily one thinks of a substitute as something inferior to the original article. The cold produced by Kelvinator is superior in all points to that of ice. Kelvinator cold is a dry, crisp cold, free from the contamination of ice ponds, wagons and dusty street.

Kelvinator once installed requires no raw materials in its operation. The one thing necessary to Kelvinate your food and to supply your table with cakes of pure clean ice, is electric current and that is a small amount.

WHAT KELVINATOR DOES

Keeps your refrigerator colder than ice.

Reduces daily cost of refrigeration.

Operates automatically—starting and stopping as cold is required.
